Polygonatum odoratum

Dear guest

Welcome to GlamsBjergHus, holiday apartment 101 Konval (Lily of the valley)

The interior decoration in our 12 holiday apartments is a delightful mix of Nordic style with the local delights from the island of Fyn. At GlamsBjergHus modern convenience meets prized handiwork.

Each apartment is painted in a classic shade chosen by Colour Architect Christian Lauritzen. Each wall reflects the colour of a plant or flower to be found in the natural beauty of Fyn. The apartment is named after this plant.

On the apartment walls you will see paintings of natural scenery of and flowers. Not masterpieces, but every brush stroke is executed with patience and love. On the sofas and beds are handknitted or crocheted blankets. You can feel how much love, peace and positive energy has gone into each stitch.

If you fall in love with an antique object in your apartment, let us know and we will quote you a fair price for it.

We hope you are enjoying your stay with us. We would appreciate a review of GlamsBjergHus on TripAdvisor. Please also subscribe to our newsletter and follow us on Facebook and Instagram.

The History of GlamsBjergHus

Inn (built 1884) shown here in 1905

Glamsbjerg Hotel 1917

Glamsbjerg Hotel 1920

GlamsBjergHus 2020

There has been a hotel on the spot where GlamsBjergHus now stands ever since brothers Frederik and Niels Plum founded an inn in 1884, at the time of the establishment of the Assens railway line. After two years' building work/renovation, Glamsbjerg's most beautiful building has reverted to its former glory. We are happy that you have chosen to stay with us.

In 1884, the Odense/Tommerup/Assens railway line was established and the town of Glamsbjerg was formed. The railway necessitated the establishment of an inn, which, at the time, was a rarity in Denmark. The Plum Brothers built the inn in 1884 on this very spot.

In 1907 W.A. Carstensen purchased Glamsbjerg Hotel and ran the hotel for the next 40 years. W.A. Carstensen was one of the proud residents of the town and he was also responsible for founding Glamsbjerg Friluftsbad (outdoor pool) in 1935 behind the hotel. The outdoor pool is still in use today. In December 1920 the hotel burned down. It was rebuilt to look almost exactly as it does today.

In 1948 W.A. Carstensen sold Glamsbjerg Hotel. In the following years the hotel had various owners, including Glamsbjerg Kommune (local council) and a strong group of local shareholders. The present owner, Jens Poulsen, bought the hotel in 2017 and has renovated GlamsBjergHus to its present high standard. GlamsBjergHus opened on March 8, 2020.
